A) THE MAIN LEASE TERMS

Please note that whilst these are the main factors to consider when making an offer for a lease, any other conditions/queries should be raised for the landlord's consideration.

Property	Please confirm unit and full addresses of the property you are interested in? If necessary, please confirm size requirement?
Rent	Please quote the rent per annum exclusive (pax), i.e. yearly sum exclusive of rates, service charges, insurance, taxes etc. Rent will normally be paid quarterly in advance. In some cases VAT will be payable on rent.
Lease Term	Please state the number of years of the lease and period of rent reviews, i.e. 10 year lease with 5 yearly upward only rent reviews. Please note that rent reviews are normally upward only.
User	Please state proposed user, i.e. A1 retail, A1/A3 food and drink, alternative use etc and whether any planning permission or other consents are required.
Break Clause	The landlord will require a minimum term of lease before a break clause is operable, a reasonable notice period and in some cases a penalty payment if a break clause is implemented. Please clearly state the year in which you require a break clause to be included.
Rent Free	The landlord may be prepared to grant a period of rent free occupation where the tenant is required to carry out significant repairs/improvements as a condition of the lease. Should a rent free period be requested, be prepared to supply a Schedule of Repairs/Improvements which you will agree to carry out.

B) IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO BE PROVIDED BY AN APPLICANT FOR A NEW LEASE OR LEASE ASSIGNMENT.

In addition to the terms of your offer you should include the following information for our client to consider your proposal fully:-

Applicant	Full name, address and company number (if applicable) of the person(s) and/or company who intend to take the lease.
Business	A description of the business which you intend to trade from the property and trading name if different to company name.
Business history	A detailed description of the related business history of the applicants, including details of other properties held on lease. If other commercial properties are held on lease please confirm location, website and provide photographs if possible. The landlord may require additional rent security deposit depending on the status of the individual and/or company proposing to take the lease. Please therefore be prepared to provide Accounts, business plans etc where available.
References	It may be that we require additional references should our client wish to proceed.
Forecast Appraisal	If you have financially modelled your business from day one with initial start up costs and then ongoing overheads and income this information would be immensely useful to support consideration.
Fit Out Plans	Although not essential at the point of offering, it would assist if you are able to provide any initial fit out plans or quotations for works
Additional information	The more information you can supply, the more likely our client (the Landlord) will accept your offer.
